“Isn't it interesting that when others fail, we tend to admire them for trying? Yet when we fail, we beat ourselves up for the very same thing. Not only that, but isn't it also amazing how quickly we forgive and forget other people's mistakes and how long we hold onto our own?” Carl Richards, New York Times

If you do fail, what are some ways to move forward?

- Make at least one change
- Don't overthink it
- Talk about it; embrace it
- Get over yourself
- Learn and move on
- Focus on what's in your control
- Positive self-care and work life balance

Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood
Author: Trevor Noah

The compelling, inspiring, and comically sublime story of one man's coming-of-age, set during the twilight of apartheid and the tumultuous days of freedom that followed.

Born a Crime is the story of a mischievous young boy who grows into a restless young man as he struggles to find himself in a world where he was never supposed to exist. It is also the story of that young man's relationship with his fearless, rebellious, and fervently religious mother—his teammate, a woman determined to save her son from the cycle of poverty, violence, and abuse that would ultimately threaten her own life.

What is the FEI Diversity Group?

FEI National continues to encourage local chapters to focus on diversity within our membership. Women executives face a unique set of challenges in balancing their careers and personal lives. This special interest group is focused on exploiting the talents of individuals and creating opportunities to improve personally and professionally. As a result, we hope to increase membership in our chapter and create additional ways for our female members to be engaged in the FEI experience.

Diversity Group events are open to the following individuals:

- Members of FEI NE Wisconsin Chapter
- Managers and executives within an FEI Member's Company
- Representatives of our strategic partner companies
- Prospective chapter members
- Guests of any of the above
- While some event topics are geared toward women, men are welcome and encouraged to attend and participate
